

Feline fun at the cat show

If you're a fan of furry, fluffy, fun-loving felines, check out the Wichita Cat Fancy Cat Show this weekend at the Cotillion. Here's what you'll find:

1) About 180 cats have been entered into the show, representing 35 breeds as well as a category for household pets. Professional judges will be evaluating the cats all day, both days.

2) The PALS Animal Rescue group in Wichita will be at the show offering cats for adoption, and representatives of Friends of Felines will talk to show-goers about Wichita's feral cat problem. Purebred cat owners also will have some cats for sale.

3) Vendors will have products to keep your cat happy, everything from toys and treats, to products to keep felines healthy and well-groomed.

Hours are 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday and 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Sunday. Admission is $5 for adults and $3 for kids 6-12, good for both days. The Cotillion is at 11120 W. Kellogg. For more information, call 316-722-4201.

A good deal

It's free to attend the 33rd Sunflower Swap Meet, which gives car enthusiasts a chance to find just the right parts for their cherished vehicles. Hours are 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. today and 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. Saturday at the Kansas Coliseum, 85th North off I-135. Parking is $3. For more information, call 316-722-1779 or 316-755-2560.
